WHY might someone spread information that isn't true?

- Because it's a joke ➔ Satire/humour

How does disinformation work?

The aim of disinformation is not necessarily to convince, but to confuse. Tactics include:

Whataboutism
drawing attention to unrelated, or distantly related issues.

Strawman
misrepresenting others' position and attacking it.

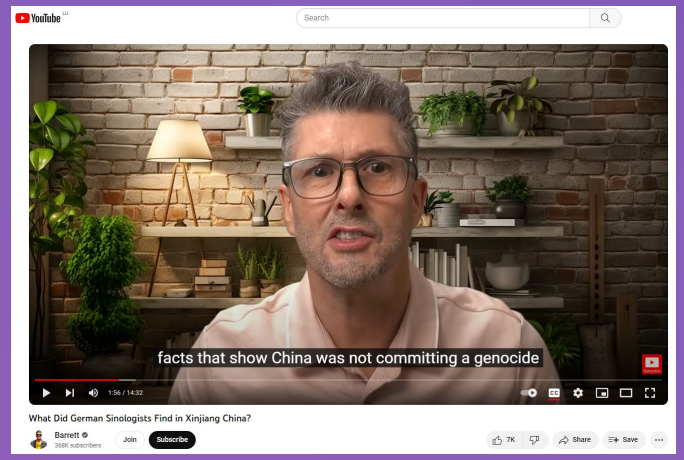

Attack
scaring off 'doubters' by using aggressive or demeaning language.

Mockery
making fun of 'doubters'; using sarcasm.

Overwhelm with detail distract from the main point

How to respond to disinformation?

Don’t be tricked into reacting!

Pause

Think

When in doubt check

- Content
  do the title and content match? Does the content make sense?
- Outlet / URL
  is it reliable? Is it what you think it is?
- Author
  are they reliable/qualified?
- Date
  when was it published?
- Image
  does it actually depict what it says?
- Other sources
  are other sources reporting on this story? Which ones?

Be aware of your biases!

Think before you share

How can YOU contribute to fighting disinformation?

Don't believe everything you hear

- Think critically, check your sources and remember to pause and reflect before reacting.

Raise awareness

- Share what you've learned with friends and family, BUT…

Don't shame people

- Show empathy and try to understand people who believe disinformation. Confrontation rarely convinces people!

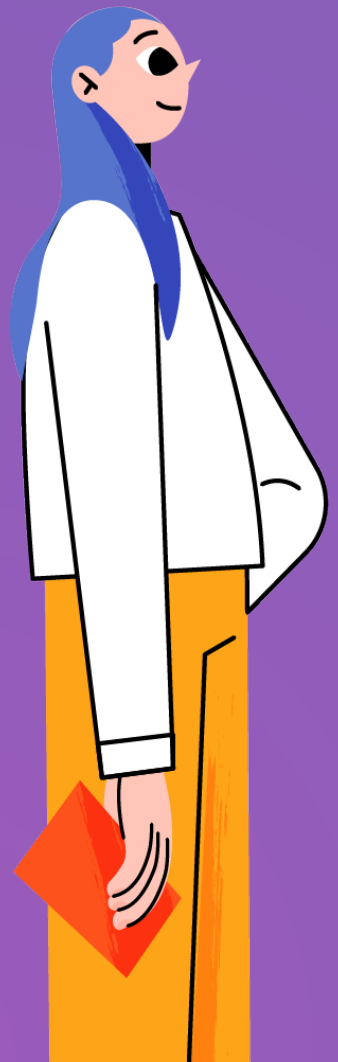

Fact-checkers

- The International Fact-Checking Network provides a list of fact-checking organisations that have signed up to the IFCN Code of Principles.
- The European Fact-Checking Strandards Network
- Search online fact-checks about a topic or person with Google's Fact Check Explorer
- See debunks of disinformation on EUvsDisinfo.eu
- EDMO (the European Digital Media Observatory) monitors and reacts to disinformation through its hubs across the EU.
